Sec. 58-81. Sex offender residency restrictions—Loitering.

(a) Purpose and intent.

- (1) The city finds and declares that sex offenders are a serious threat to public safety. When convicted sex offenders reenter society, they are much more likely than any other type of offender to be rearrested for a new rape or sexual assault. Given the high rate of recidivism for sex offenders and that reducing opportunity and temptation is important to minimizing the risk of re-offense, there is a need to protect children where they congregate or play in public places in addition to the protections afforded by state law near schools and daycare centers. The city finds and declares that, in addition to schools and daycare centers, children congregate or play in a number of public places, including public parks and other facilities for children.
- (2) This section is a regulatory measure aimed at protecting the health and safety of children in the City of Fort Atkinson from the risk that convicted sex offenders may reoffend in locations close to their residences. It is the intent of this section not to impose a criminal penalty but rather to serve the city's compelling interest to promote, protect and improve the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the city by creating areas around locations where children regularly congregate in concentrated numbers wherein certain sexual offenders and sexual predators are prohibited from establishing temporary or permanent residence; and by creating child safety zones where children regularly congregate in concentrated numbers wherein access by certain sexual offenders and sexual predators to such zones shall be restricted or excluded.

(b) Definitions. As used in this section and unless the context otherwise requires:

Among the circumstances which may be considered in determining whether such alarm is warranted is the fact that the actor takes flight upon appearance on a peace officer, refuses to identify himself, or manifestly endeavors to conceal himself or an object. Unless flight by the actor or other circumstances makes it impracticable, a peace officer shall prior to any arrest for an offense under this section afford the actor an opportunity to dispel any alarm which would otherwise be warranted, by requesting him to identify himself and explain his presence and conduct. No person shall be convicted of an offense under this section if the peace officer did not comply with the preceding sentence, or if it appears at trial that the explanation given by the actor was true and, if believed by the peace officer at the time, would have dispelled the alarm.

- (1) It is unlawful for any person defined as an offender pursuant to subsection (b) to loiter or prowl in the locations enumerated in subsection (c), in a place, at a time, or a manner not usual for law-abiding individuals under circumstances that warrant alarm for the safety of persons or property in the vicinity.
- (2) Among the circumstances which may be considered in determining whether such alarm is warranted is the fact that the actor takes flight upon appearance of a peace officer, refuses to identify himself/herself or manifestly endeavors to conceal himself/herself or any object. Unless flight by the actor or other circumstances make it impracticable, a peace officer shall prior to any arrest for an offense under this section, afford the actor an opportunity to dispel any alarm which would otherwise

Each violation and each day a violation continues or occurs may constitute a separate offense. Neither the issuance of a citation, nor the imposition of forfeiture hereunder shall preclude the city from seeking or obtaining any or all other legal and equitable remedies to prevent or remove a violation of this section.
 - (2) Injunction—Violation of residency restrictions. If an offender establishes a permanent or temporary residence in violation of subsection (c), the chief of police may refer the matter to the city attorney. The referral shall include a written determination by the chief of police that, upon all of the facts and circumstances and the purpose and intent of this section, such violation interferes substantially with the comfortable enjoyment of life, health, safety of another or others. Upon such referral, the city attorney shall bring an action in the name of the city in circuit court to permanently enjoin such residency as a public nuisance.
- (g) Severability. If any portion of this section is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, such determination shall not impair the enforceability of the remaining terms and provisions contained herein.

 - (2) Membership. The board shall consist of five members. The city manager shall appoint members for a term of two years, subject to confirmation by the council.
 - (3) Procedure. The board shall approve an official appeal form. An offender shall completely fill in the official form and submit it to the city clerk, who shall forward it to the board, which shall receive reports from the police department on such appeal. The board shall then convene and consider the public interest as well as the offender's presentation and concerns. The board shall decide by majority voice whether to grant or deny an exemption. An exemption may be conditional or limited to a certain address or time. After deliberation, the board shall forward its decision, in writing, to the offender, the City of Fort Atkinson and the City of Fort Atkinson Police Department for their information and action.

To Whom It May Concern,

I, Gabriel Lopez, submitted the form for the City of Fort Atkinson Sex Offender Residence Board Appeal on 8/12/24. At that time, a specific home was not available to list on the form due to currently being in the process of searching for a home to purchase.

However, both myself & my girlfriend Stephanie, found a home on 8/17/24 that we would like to move forward with purchasing. We have not submitted an offer yet due to us waiting to hear back from the City of Fort Atkinson on whether we've been approved or not.

We would like to add 111 Clarence Street, Fort Atkinson, WI as the address we'd like to potentially move to. We fell in love with this home and all of it's old charm. It's the perfect size for us to grow our family in. Other features that we loved about this home is that it's on a dead end road that was quiet. We loved this because Stephanie's son already loves to ride his bike and play outside and with it being on a dead end road, Stephanie can be reassured that her son can safely play in his yard and on the sidewalk with very little concern.

Sincerely,
Gabriel Lopez & Stephanie Thone
